

House Resolution No. 74

Whereas, Joe Rinke has attained considerable distinction as an electrical engineering graduate of Washington University in St. Louis and as a registered professional engineer in the state of Missouri; and

Whereas, Joe Rinke will enhance his already stellar record of achievement on January 17, 2004, when he receives Man of the Year recognition from the Building and Construction Trades Council; and

Whereas, retired from Ameren Corporation after more than forty-six years of service, Joe Rinke was Manager of Construction and Engineering Services during his last fifteen years of employment; and

Whereas, Joe Rinke currently is the owner and cochairman of PRIDE; member of the national boilermakers' Owner Advisory Board and Tripartite Committee, Missouri River Basin Tripartite Committee, Construction Advisory Committee of the American Arbitration Association, and various liaison committees in Missouri and Illinois, including NECA and the MCA; executive officer and past president of the St. Louis Council of Construction Consumers; and a past member of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee of the Illinois Council of Owners and Construction Associates; and

Whereas, Joe Rinke was recently awarded the Lifetime Achievement Award by the St. Louis Council of Construction Consumers in recognition of his continuing efforts to promote labor harmony and cost-effective construction and maintenance practices in the St. Louis area construction community:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Joe Rinke as Man of the Year by the Building and Construction Trades Council and to convey to him best wishes for continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Joe Rinke.
